NEW ORLEANS, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1871. NUMBER 202.

Commencement Exercises of the Peabody Normal Seminary.

Grunewald Hall was crowded last night by a large and appreciative audience, to witness the exercises of this seminary. The graduating class, composed of forty young ladies, gave evidence, not only of the closest application to study, but of the most industrious attention of their teachers.

To Mrs. Kate B. Shaw, the Principal, it must have been a happy event, seeing, as she did, that her labors had not gone unrequited, but were crowned with that success which they so richly merited.

The young ladies acquitted themselves in every branch of study with grace, promptness and accuracy.

Dr. Ziender, assisted by State Superintendent Lusher, then presented the young ladies with their diplomas, each graduate stepping upon the stage to receive it.

By special request the Rev. Dr. Palmer delivered a most touching, eloquent, and complimentary address to the young ladies, which was at once apt and agreeable.

Upon the stage were seated Prof. Alexander Dimitry, Hon. T. J. Semmes, Hon. R. M. Lusher, Rev. Dr. Palmer, G. W. Race, Esq., W. O. Rogers, Esq., Rev. Dr. Markham and Dr. Ziender.
