NEW-ORLEANS:

THURSDAY (EVENING) APRIL 3, 1834

IN THE PARISH COURT.—Mary Anne Dragoon wife of André Demitry vs. André Demitry her husband.—By virtue of a writ of fieri facias to me directed, will be sold at the New Exchange, corner of St. Louis and Chartres streets, in this city, on Tuesday, the sixth day of May next, at one o'clock, P. M., the following described property, to wit:

A square containing twelve Lots of Ground, situated in the Town of McDonough, each lot having sixty by one hundred and twenty feet; another square in the said Town of McDonough, having three hundred feet on Jefferson, Tholomy, Madison and Socrates streets.

A Lot of Ground, designated by the number twenty five, on a plan of twenty nine lots, situated in the faubourg Trémé; the said lot measuring forty-two feet four inches front on Robertson street, and having one hundred and six feet two inches in depth, on the line which separates it from the property of Manis Jacobs, and a hundred and nineteen feet nine inches and three quarters on the side which separates it from lot number twenty six, and now goes to the rear, so that the back line has but forty one feet and eleven inches.

Three Lots of Ground adjoining each other, designated by the numbers five, six and seven, in square number fifty five on the plan of the new faubourg Marigny, in this city, in Union street, between Solidell and Josephine streets, having each sixty feet front on Union street by one hundred and twenty feet in depth, French measure. The lot numbered seven forming the corner of Union and Josephine streets.

A Lot, designated by the number six, in square number twelve, of the new faubourg Marigny, having forty two feet ten inches front on Champs Elises street by one hundred feet in depth.

The one half of a Lot joining the above, designated by the number seven, having twenty-one feet five inches front on Champs Elises street by one hundred feet in depth, French measure.

Four Lots of Ground, in square number one hundred and eight, situated in Francis street, in the faubourg Marigny, each lot measuring sixty feet front by one hundred and twenty feet in depth, designated by the numbers nine, ten, eleven and twelve.

Two Shares of the capital stock of the City Bank.

A portion of the Batture, facing the square number five, in the Town of McDonough, extending from Washington street to the river.

Irène, a gosse woman, aged about twenty-nine years, and her son Gustavus, a mulatto boy, aged about ten years
