
Boston Recorder.

Vol. XIX—No. 44—Whole No. 981.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1834,

JOSEPH TRACY, EDITOR.

NOTICE.

MR. G. A. PERDICARIS proposes to deliver a course of Lectures on the actual, moral, and intellectual situation of his countrymen; particularly as it is manifested in the literature of modern Greece.

The course to consist of nine Lectures, to be delivered at the Hall of the Female Monitorial School, Temple Avenue, leading from Temple place to Washington street, on Monday and Thursday evenings, at 7 o'clock.

Terms for the whole course. Two dollars for a single Ticket. Three dollars for a lady and gentleman, and 50 cents for a single lecture.

The Introductory Lecture will be delivered THIS Evening. Admittance free. October 17.