

THE GEORGIAN.

VOL. XII.

SAVANNAH, WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 3, 1830.

NO. 83.

Letters have been received at New-York from J. Stephanini, the Greek who was in this and other cities of the Union last winter, to raise money to redeem his family from Turkish slavery. He was at Marseilles on the 12th of December, whence he expected soon to sail for Sicily, on his way to Greece. He makes a particular request that his grateful remembrance may be expressed to all his friends in the United States.
